

Behavioral Health

Scan with your camera app to view these resources & more on Cap4Kids.org

Walk-In Behavioral Evaluations Walk-in, same day basis, for behavioral concerns that are not a serious crisis.

Community Behavioral Health City-operated health maintenance organization for persons needing mental health care. Substance abuse treatment also available through this resource.

Parents Involved Network (PIN) An organization that assists caregivers/parents of children with emotional and behavioral disorders. Provides information, helps parents find services and will advocate on their behalf with any of the public systems that serve children.

Children's Crisis Treatment Center Provides high quality mental health services to Philadelphia's children and their families. Program include outpatient mental health services post-traumatic assistance for children who have experienced a severe emotional trauma, family support, and WRAP around services.

